

International Champions

Position summary

The Faculty of Medicine's Global Strategy aims to guide and support our goal to be the most globally connected biomedical and public health faculty in Australia. To fulfil this goal, we will rely on 'International Champions' across our academic and professional networks to lead our teaching, research and engagement efforts in priority regions.

These regions include North America, South East Asia, India, China, and our regional neighbours in the Pacific.

Responsibilities

Responsibility	Description
Market Intelligence	Share market intelligence from the region. This may include identifying: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Opportunities in teaching and research - Areas of concern surrounding existing partnerships/projects - Philanthropic, government and industry funding opportunities
Visiting delegations	Provide advice on the strategic value of hosting visiting delegations to UQ. Participate actively in international visits from partners and potential partners from priority regions
Contribute to student recruitment activities	Use your networks and relationships with institutions, government and non-government organisations to promote our undergraduate, postgraduate and higher degree programs to future students and their influencers within the region. Provide advice and guidance on the value of establishing articulation and partnership agreements with institutions in the region. Participate in student recruitment meetings and events while travelling to the region and online from Australia.
Support the central university in proactive engagement in the region	Actively contribute to University-wide efforts in the region. This may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Contributing to briefing documents for the region/country - Joining centrally organised meetings at UQ and offshore - Supporting offshore advancement activities
Active participation in meetings of the International Champions	Commitment to participate in quarterly meetings chaired by the International Champion (Lead) for your region.

Selection Criteria

- Deep, sustained relationships with colleagues, institutions, government and non-government organisations and/or industry in a particular country or region; or
- Experience and expertise in a particular country or region; and
- Approval from Organisational Unit Head in supporting your participation

Recognition and Reward

The International Champion is an unpaid role, however it will come with the following benefits:

- Acknowledgement at the annual Faculty of Medicine Excellence Awards
- Invitation to an annual recognition event hosted by the Executive Dean

Apply Now

To apply to become an International Champion, please email the Faculty of Medicine's International Manager outlining:

- The country or region you have links with
- The institutions or organisations you have links to
- The nature of these links (research, engagement, teaching or other).